Results from the community survey with protective factors and objectives included in order to address priority issues

Priority findings and needs identified by community members
System	Priority findings from survey	Importance (/5)	Summary of priority findings	Associated protective factors	Objectives
Youth 0–5 years-old 6–12 years-old 13–17 years-old 18–24 years-old	• Youth 0–24 years old lack social skills (respect, communication, conflict resolution, bullying, self-confidence). • Certain youth experience bullying. • Certain youth have substance abuse problems.	4.38 4.35 4.35	Youth 0–24 years old lack social skills (respect, communication, conflict resolution, bullying, self-confidence).	Social development: strategies to adapt social attitudes and behaviour/coping mechanisms.	Reinforce social skills of youth ages 0–24 years-old.
Family	• Families lack services and specialized community resources. • The majority of reported cases received by community organizations is linked to negligence.	4.13 4.38	Parents lack guidance and tools on parenting good practices.	Parental education attitudes and practices: parent engagement and guidance on good practices in parenting.	Improve parents' ability to solve problems in their role as parents.
School	• Lack of services for students with special needs or challenges. • Co-curricular service offerings are diminishing due to lack of resources.	4.36 4.20	Many youth struggle along their academic journeys.	School leadership and management: support students in need of extra and personalized support.	Adapt teaching methods to meet students' unique needs and challenges.
Community	• Communities have a lot of attractions and natural sites that could be developed and leveraged to spur community development and revitalization (through job creation, mutual aid, repurposing community spaces, revitalizing nature sites, etc.). • Lack of recreational activities and neighbourhood services for families and youth; existing services are minimally used.	4.25 4.20	Community resources are under-used.	Community mobilization: quality and accessibility of community resources and services.	Heighten inter-municipal engagement among community members.